

Occupational Health Nursing Institute

June 19, 2010

Who: Students and graduates of nursing and related fields who have an interest in learning more about health and safety in the workplace. Space is limited. Available to residents of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Alaska.

What: This innovative educational event is designed to enhance your knowledge and practice related to occupational health and safety. Join us for an interactive, enlightening, and fun learning experience!

Topics include: Industrial hygiene basics; workplace exposures and health outcomes; regulatory system navigation; occupational health assessment skills; worker stress and vulnerable worker populations.

Where: Attend in-person on the University of Washington campus in Seattle, WA on June 19, 9am-3pm (lunch & parking provided) -OR- online in real time from your home or workplace. No cost to register. All participants will complete five online preparatory modules in advance of June 19.*

Additional Information: All participants will receive $50 stipend for full participation and program evaluation. Continuing education contact hours available. Provider approved by the California board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number CEP 14441 for 9 contact hours. Karen R. Bowman, MN, RN, COHN-S CEP Provider 1441 for this course.

Contact: Julie Ward, MN, RN - 206.221.5746 - juliew2@uw.edu

OHN Institute is offered in a combined self-study and live session format. Self-study will be completed in the 2 weeks prior to June 19.*